Director of Investigations
International Justice Mission
Operational Field Presence (OFP) South Asia

The Mission

International Justice Mission (IJM) is a human rights organization that supports government authorities in rescuing victims of violence, sexual exploitation, slavery, and oppression, while holding perpetrators accountable for their crimes. IJM is composed of a multi-national team of law enforcement professionals, a highly qualified legal staff, and experienced social workers. The work of IJM has been featured on Dateline NBC, in Forbes, New York Times Magazine, Wall Street Journal and other media outlets.

The Need

The OFP Director of Investigations will be responsible for conducting and monitoring investigations of sex trafficking within the targeted geographical scope. The Director of Investigations will liaise with local law enforcement officials to ensure that they intervene to rescue identified victims and arrest and charge the identified perpetrators.

Responsibilities

Leadership: Based on stated objectives, help to develop and then implement location-specific investigative strategies and tactics; Enforce IJM HQ investigative protocols and propose additional locally-specific protocols; Recruit, train, supervise and mentor an investigative team of approximately eight investigators as well as investigation interns and volunteers; and Develop the leadership and management potential of key agents.

Management: In consultation with the legal team, manage daily investigative operations, ensuring that projected activities, outputs and objectives are achieved; Develop and manage a network of informants who can provide specific, credible information regarding cases of sex trafficking; Develop and manage a network of operatives who can be mobilized to gather relevant information and evidence as directed...

Program: Fully understand the relevant laws and procedures regarding investigations, arrests and charging of perpetrators; Advocate to government authorities for rescue of victims and perpetrator accountability and advise such authorities during enforcement actions; Pursue proper arrest and charging of perpetrators; Develop and continually modify a best practices investigations training manual and materials; and Advise the aftercare team as to proper protection of victims and witnesses.

Required Skills and Experience: Mature orthodox Christian faith as defined by the Apostles' Creed; Fluency in English (written and oral); Minimum of five years experience in criminal investigation with a public law enforcement agency, international human rights agency, public international agency, private investigative or security firm, or military or national security agency; Proven ability to work undercover or supervise undercover operations; Experience establishing, developing and training operative networks; Minimum of three years successful management/team building experience; Demonstrated interest in human rights and social justice; and Prior Peace Corps, relief, legal, enforcement or other overseas work experience preferred.

Critical Qualities: Attention to detail and disciplined with priorities; Strong service ethic and a passion for IJM's goals; Patient; work well under stress; Personable; sustained positive attitude; Diplomatic and flexible; Professional demeanor and written and oral communication; Able to achieve goals in a cross-cultural and cross-religious setting; and Effective team player and leader.

Relocation/Travel Requirements: This position requires full-time residence in one of the two areas of operations in which operations will be conducted and requires regular travel to the second area of operations, approximately 8 hours away by train. Approximately 20 days per month will be spent in the first area and 10 in the second. Sporadic travel to other parts of the region and to the United States is required.

Organization Information: Competitive salary, with medical, dental, and retirement benefits; Complete relocation and other expatriate benefits; Position reports directly to the OFP Directors in the two areas of operation; and Applications accepted until the position is filled.

The Blue Line® is a monthly newsletter featuring police officer, fire service and other public safety testing/recruitment information, editorials and general interest articles. Opinions expressed in featured articles are solely those of the authors and may not represent those of the editor or publisher. A great effort is made to see that the information in the newsletter is current and accurate, however the accuracy is not guaranteed since the information printed is only as accurate as that received and the possibility exists that some of the listings may have become out of date by the time of publication. For this reason, deadline dates and contact telephone numbers are included whenever possible. Listings may not represent immediate employment opportunities, departments may conduct testing only to establish an eligibility list to fill potential or future vacancies. Kaplan College

School of Criminal Justice

Associate of Applied Science in Criminal Justice

Kaplan College offers a level of training that provides a solid foundation in criminal justice and a liberal arts knowledge base. Students have the option to pursue the technical skills of various specialized employment areas such as:

Associate of Applied Science in Criminal Justice

Whether you are currently in law enforcement, corrections, or private security, or looking to enter one of these fields, a criminal justice degree or certificate can make all the difference. In a typical 30-year career, the difference between having one or not can add up to several hundred thousand dollars. A Kaplan College program is the place to start. Gain the skills you need to advance or begin your criminal justice career. We even offer qualified Crime Scene Technician Certificate students an opportunity to intern at a top crime lab for hands-on learning.

Crime Scene Technician Certificate

The Crime Scene Technician certificate prepares students for career advancement in criminal investigation. Learn the complexities of locating, collecting, and analyzing evidence for use in court. Identify crime scene boundaries. Gain skills in searching for evidence: fingerprints, forensic identifiable material, and other items of evidentiary value. Students receive cutting-edge training in evidence collection, lab techniques, and forensic protocols.

Terrorism and National Security Management Certificate

This TNSM certificate prepares students for career advancement in terrorism and national security management. Explore the impact of terrorist violence and threats to established governments. Discern terrorist groups that endanger life and property by the use of explosives, weapons, and other violent means. Students gain insight into modern terrorism and specialized training in terrorist response and national security techniques.

The Kaplan College Self-Evaluation is your chance to provide us quickly and easily with information about your background, interests, and goals so that together we can determine if online learning is right for you.
